You'll have time to stretch your legs with a walk through a river side village before cruising past Ballia & Buxar, famous for the battle fought here in 1764 which, together with Plassey, laid the foundations of the British Raj.

DAY 4

Sail upstream today past Chausa to Ghazipur, still a centre for (official) opium production. Visit the imposing tomb of Lord Cornwallis, the General responsible for the British defeat at Yorktown and, if time permits, take a stroll through the busy Ghazipur bazaar, a quintessential Indian experience.

DAY 5

This morning, sail on to Varanasi, formerly Benaras. Also known as the 'City of Light', it is one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world, dating back 3,000 years. Mark Twain once wrote that "Benaras is older than history, older than tradition, older even than legend, and looks twice as old as all of them put together". An accurate description, Varanasi is arresting to your every sense yet beautifully spiritual for those willing to let go and just be. It's the most important religious site for Hindus and visited by people from all walks of life who come here in the hope of attaining moksha or salvation.

After lunch, visit the Buddhist site at Sarnath and the Deer Park where the Buddha preached his first sermon, as well as the nearby archaeological museum.

DAY 6

This morning, sail past the ghats of Varanasi to visit Chunar, the great Mughal Fort, the old British cemetery and the Mughal tombs nearby and Carpet weaving offer a taste of the traditional industries that still thrive in the region. Later cruise down to visit Ramnagar to see the Ramnagar Maharaja's Palace and museum.

DAY 7

An early start this morning as you take rowing boats at dawn to soak in the lively and colourful bathing ghats of Varanasi. After a reviving breakfast onboard, disembark again to take a walk through the busy alleys of Varanasi to experience the beating heart of the city. In the evening, take rowing boats once again to join the evening Ganga Aarti ceremony, where young priests perform their daily rituals with brass lamps and spiritual mantras in front of large crowds from all over India and the world. A truly mesmerising sight, this aarti is the essence of Varanasi. Return to the ship anchored at Rajghat.
